Hummingbird Bridal Studio, Sheffield, is seeking a reliable and experienced Store Bridal Stylists to start as soon as possible on a contract basis, with strong potential to grow within this expanding independent bridal boutique. Individually, we are looking for a fun, fashion conscious, lively individual for this colourful role which includes key holder responsibilities and emphasis on Stylist duties! We are looking for a candidate who is casual in nature who moulds well with others, but can also show great business etiquette and professionalism. Training will be provided however, the stylist should have a keen eye for style and existing passion for bridal, and should reflect the polished branding and ethos of the store. Hummingbird is proud to have established a strong Social Media following, and this interaction and marketing plays a huge part within this role; we want to emphasise that the candidate will take a team role in coming up with content / artwork ideas as well as being within content on a regular basis (Dress up time!) therefore we need an individual who knows this area/technology and is comfortable being in video/photo content. Working within a luxury bridal boutique is not your average position and personality is key! You must be personable, energetic and upbeat, but also have focus and motivation to ensure smooth running of the store either as a team or independently. Within the studio, you will also be expected to pitch in with 'housekeeping'; duties on the shop floor and behind the scenes as with any stylist role to ensure a luxurious and flawless aesthetic is upheld to delivery results. Within the role, you will be required to execute broad knowledge of product and express understanding of cut, fabrics and overall design so a flare for fashion design as well as thirst for knowledge and expanding education in this area is essential. This isn't purely a selling or admin role, we are looking for a candidate who is interested in learning the inner workings of a bridal business and has the acumen for striving to develop to ensure the best possible experience for our brides; someone who is ready to roll their sleeves up but also ready to have some fun! Candidates must be extremely flexible in both weekly hours/days workable, and willing to carry out a vast array of responsibilities regularly. This role does require some heavy lifting of gowns and boxes at times. The role responsibilities and hours can all be discussed and tailored for the right candidate.
